

Fullerton College Web Advisory Group

Purpose

The Fullerton College Web Advisory Group advises, monitors, and coordinates the continued development and maintenance of the college website, including its structure, design, content, policies and procedures. This group is charged with the responsibility to study, review and recommend best practices in web content and design; to promote author/user collaboration and support for this important resource by coordinating web-related activities; to assist in evaluating the effectiveness and performance of the website and to recommend appropriate improvements as needed; to facilitate and monitor compliance with college policies and procedures pertaining to the website; and to assist in creating an engaging, useful and user-friendly site.

Membership

The Web Advisory Group is comprised of volunteers with representation from the following areas:

- Academic Computing Technologies
- Associated Students
- Disability Support Services
- Distance Education
- Instruction
- Student Equity Committee
- Student Services

Meetings

The Web Advisory Group meets four times a year, twice each semester. Meetings are called by the Public Information Officer. Email communication may take place throughout the year as well.